

The Boston Schweitzer Fellows Program

presents

ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE:

EXAMPLES FROM LOCAL COMMUNITIES

AND

WHY YOU SHOULD CARE

A Panel Discussion featuring:

■ MIKE NAKAGAWA, Alewife Study Group, the Cambridge neighborhood group focused on issues surrounding the contaminated W.R. Grace site. The group recently secured passage of a city-wide Asbestos Protection Ordinance;

■ DOUG BRUGGE, PhD., Tufts University School of Medicine, Dept. of Family Medicine and Community Health, who has studied the health effects of air pollution in Chinatown and environmental impacts on Native American reservations;

■ SETH JAFFE, Esq., Partner at Foley, Hoag, & Eliot, will represent the industry perspective on environmental law;

■ JAMES YOUNGER, US Environmental Protection Agency, New England Director of Civil Rights and Urban Affairs,

and

■ LOIS ADAMS, US Environmental Protection Agency Office of Children's Health Protection, will represent the Federal policy perspective.

THE ALBERT
SCHWEITZER
FELLOWSHIP

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 3, 2000

6:00 – Complimentary Dinner, 6:30-8:00 – Discussion

CAMBRIDGE RINDGE AND LATIN HIGH SCHOOL

495 Broadway Avenue, Cambridge, MA., In the Cafeteria

This symposium is organized by the following Boston Schweitzer fellows: Arshiya Baig, Tufts University School of Medicine; Jessica Diamond, Tufts Veterinary School; Jennie Green, Harvard School of Public Health; Jillian Ashley Martin, MGH Institute of Health Professions.